 100 LOCKVILLE RD PICKERINGTON, OH 43147
 PHONE: (614) 837-3974 FAX: (614) 833-2219

BASIC RIGHTS: If you appear in The City of Pickerington Mayor's Court, you should know your basic rights as a defendant in Court. They are:

- To know the nature of the charge filed against you.
- To know the identity of the person making the charge against you.
- To see and read the affidavit filed against you.
- To have legal counsel represent you. If you cannot afford legal counsel, you may have your case transferred to the Fairfield County Municipal Court to determine if you are eligible for a Public Defender.
- To have a trial by jury where provided by law in the appropriate Municipal Court.

PLEAS: When your name is called in Court, The Prosecutor will inform you of the nature of the charge. You will then be required to enter one of the following pleas provided by the laws of Ohio, and will be able to present any information to the Magistrate:

- GUILTY- The plea of guilty is a complete admission of your guilt.
- NO CONTEST- The plea of no contest is not an admission of guilt, but is an admission to the truth of the facts alleged in the information or complaint. A no contest plea cannot be used against you in any other civil or criminal proceeding. Upon receiving the plea of no contest, the Magistrate will assess the information on the complaint and if a charge is appropriate, you will be found guilty and sentencing will occur.
- NOT GUILTY- The plea of not guilty is a denial of legal guilt. Upon the entering of a not guilty plea, your case will be set for a later pre-trial/trial docket.
- ONCE IN JEOPARDY- The plea of once in jeopardy indicates that you have already been tried for the same offense from the same incident.

PROOF OF FINANCIAL RESPONSIBILITY: A defendant who is charged with a traffic offense shall either present to the police officer at the time of the alleged offense, or to the court at the time of his/her appearance, proof of financial responsibility for the operation of the vehicle at the time of the offense IN EFFECT ON THE TIME AND DATE OF THE TRAFFIC OFFENSE. If you do not have proof of financial responsibility, or if you did not show it to the police officer or to the court, the Bureau of Motor Vehicles (BMV) will be notified of the failure to provide proof. The BMV will then send a notice to the address appearing on your driver's license indicating that a failure to provide proof of financial responsibility within 30 days will result in a 90-day suspension of your license, imposed by the BMV.

"If you are not a citizen of the United States, you are hereby advised that conviction of the offense to which you are pleading guilty (or no contest when applicable) may have the consequence of deportation, exclusion of admission to the United States, or denial of naturalization pursuant to the laws of the United States."
